WAS A CLOSE SHAVE

Premier Balfour Speaks in Glasgow on Army Reform and the North Sea Incident

Bulletin Special.

Glasgow, January 13th.—Hon. A. J. Balfour speaking at a banquet here said that the two great problems with which the army officials had to deal were the defence of Afghanistan and the permanent force which involved a cost as much as any Continental nation was able to bear. When this was completed the army would be in advance of that of any other nation in Europe.

He alluded to the Dogger Bank affair and said Britain was leading in the movement looking to the world's peace and had skirted the precipice of war when a small want of tact might have plunged the country into a struggle that would have been a discredit to civilization.

RE FATSTOCK SHOW

Editor Bulletin:

Dear sir:

I have received a letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture dated Dec. 8th, 1904, stating that the Department proposes holding a number of live stock judging schools throughout the Territories during the coming winter, concluding the series with two or more large meetings and a fat stock show, to be held at two large central points, probably at Regina and Calgary. What is the matter with the Edmonton district, it is not mentioned. She has advantages as regards the soil capable of producing the very best of feed, hay, grain, roots; the stuff which makes the finished product; a thing that is lacking so much in our Western export cattle. She has a reputation for raising high class bacon and hogs, she has the stock, the best that can be purchased in Manitoba, Eastern Canada and also the United States of the choicest of breeding, bought with an aim to improve the grade of cattle and hogs in the district. Now with a fat stock show, we can see what we have done and also what is lacking and what we have to do to bring our finished product up to the world's market requirements. Edmonton district has the men and why not hold an annual fat stock show here and toe the line with the rest of the Smithfields, and also reap the benefit of the great educational work for breeders and feeders along the live stock lines, as well as the new settlers.

Stoessel and Nogi

Headquarters of the Third Japanese Army in front of Port Arthur. January 8, via Tientsin, January 10. The meeting of General Nogi and General Stoessel to-day was as dramatic as the conclusion of the siege. It had been previously arranged to take place at noon in the single undamaged house of the village of Shuishi. This house was a miserable hovel, called the Plum Tree Cottage.

Through a misunderstanding, General Stoessel rode out of Port Arthur at 10 o'clock, accompanied by Col. Reiss and two flag officers, to the Japanese lines, and missed the Japanese delegation to escort him to the meeting place.

General Stoessel is a large man, of heavy appearance, and looks like a good fighter.

When General Nogi, entering the compound of the cottage, looking careworn, the two generals cordially shook hands, and Nogi, through an interpreter, expressed pleasure at meeting a general who had fought so bravely and gallantly for his Emperor and country. General Stoessel thanked General Nogi for the pleasure of meeting the hero of the victorious army.

General Nogi explained that he received a message from his Emperor that the greatest consideration be shown to General Stoessel and his officers in appreciation of their splendid loyalty to Emperor and country. Because of that, he added, the Russian officers would be allowed to wear their swords.

General Stoessel expressed his gratitude to the Japanese Emperor for thus saving the honor of his (Stoessel's) family, and said he and his descendants would appreciate the thoughtful kindness of the Emperor of Japan. The General expressed the gratitude of his officers, and thanked General Nogi for sending the message from Stoessel to Emperor Nicholas, and transmitting His Majesty's reply, which read, "I allow each officer to profit by the reserved privilege to return to Russia under the obligation not to take any further part in the present war or share in the distinctions thereof. I thank you and the brave men of the garrison for the gallant defence."

Both generals then mutually praised each other and their officers for their bravery. The conversation afterwards turned on the explosion of the mine at Sungshu mountain fort. General Stoessel said that the entire garrison of the fort was either killed or were made prisoners.

Continuing, General Stoessel said he had heard that General Nogi had lost both of his sons, and praised his loyalty in thus sacrificing his sons, who had died fighting for their Emperor and country.

General Nogi smilingly replied, "One of my sons gave his life at Nan Shan, and the other at 203 Metre hill. Both of these positions were of the greatest importance to the Japanese army, and I am glad the sacrifice of my sons' lives had been in the capture of such important positions, and I feel that the sacrifices were not made in vain. Their lives were nothing compared to the objects sought."

General Stoessel then asked permission to present his charger to General Nogi as a token of his appreciation and admiration. General Nogi expressed thanks for the Russian general's kindness, but said he could not accept the horse, but, he continued, he would accept it for the army, as he considered that the Russian horses were the property of Japan, and he felt that he could not make General Stoessel's charger his private property.

Thereupon General Stoessel assured General Nogi that he admired his point of view.

The Japanese commander requested General Stoessel to continue to occupy his residence in Port Arthur until arrangements were completed for the return of himself and family to Russia.

THE SECOND SQUADRON

NO INDICATION OF ITS RECALL

Over 10,000 Deaths in Port Arthur.
Officers go into Captivity with their Men

St. Petersburg, January 11.—The admiralty has not given the slightest official confirmation of the report of the recall of the Vice-Admiral Rojstvensky's squadron. On the contrary, the officials point calmly to the preparations being made to reinforce the squadron with a division of the third Pacific squadron as sufficient evidence that Rojstvensky will not return to European waters. The Russian ice-breaker Ernak at Libau has been ordered to keep the channel clear for the ships which are being made ready for sea. Under the French regulations it is maintained that Rojstvensky's ships could cruise in the Indian ocean, coaling and provisioning from their own store ships.

THE NUMBER LOST.

Tokio, January 11.—In well-informed circles it is estimated that the original garrison of Port Arthur numbered about 38,000 to 40,000 men, including sailors. The killed, those who died of sickness and the missing are placed at over 10,000.

The Japanese, who express great admiration for General Fock and other officers, for refusing parole and standing by the men of their army are busily preparing to receive the Russian prisoners from Port Arthur. The first batch of 10,000 is expected to arrive at Moji and Shimoda shortly. After disinfection, the prisoners will be sent to Kure, and probably to Matsuyama, Nagasaki, Himeji, Kyoto, etc. The generals will be treated in the best possible manner. It is unlikely that any of the prisoners will be brought to Tokio.

WILL GO TO JAPAN WITH THEIR MEN.

Headquarters of the Japanese Army at Port Arthur, undated.—Lieut.-Generals Fock and Smirnov have decided to go to Japan as prisoners of war. General Smirnov was in command of the forts at Port Arthur, and General Fock commanded the fourth division of the army there.

Fifty per cent. of the Russian officers will go to Japan and share with their men the fate of prisoners of war. There are five Russian Admirals at Port Arthur, one of whom will go to Japan.

SKRYDLOFF EXPECTS TROUBLE

Vladivostok, January 11, delayed in transmission.—Admiral Skrydloff and his staff left to-day for St. Petersburg. Addressing his men Admiral Skrydloff said there were (keels) to be important developments soon in the region of Vladivostok, and he hoped that in case the town should be called upon to stand a siege, the garrison would emulate the devotion and heroism of Port Arthur.

JAPANESE TRANSPORTS SEEN

Sandakan, British North Borneo, January 11.—Two Japanese transports were reported off Libau on January 4. Two colliers for the Russian second Pacific squadron were at Libau.

Large Hotel For Montreal

Montreal, January 13.—Montreal capitalists have secured in England financial backing to build a three million dollar hotel in Montreal. President Hays, of the G. T. P., has taken great interest in the project. The plan is to build a ten-story building.

Roblin After Territorial Lands

Winnipeg, January 13.—A resolution is to be introduced into the local house on Monday on the extension of the boundaries of Manitoba. The proposed extension includes the eastern portion of Assiniboia and Saskatchewan.

Accidentally Shot

Parry Sound, January 13.—Leslie Black, son of Rev. Richard Black, was accidentally shot and killed.

Will Raise the Price

Bulletin Special.

Winnipeg, January 13.—Premier Roblin announced, speaking to young conservatives, that the amendment to the license act would be high license for the Province.

Hug Mine Field

Tokio, Jan. 11.—The Navy department says that the district covered by submarine mines had a radius of 40 miles outside of Port Arthur. It reports the destruction and explosion of 295 of these mines to date. Ten additional survivors of the third expedition of Japanese blockade of the entrance to Port Arthur have been wounded and were in Russian hospitals. They have been transferred to the Japanese.

General Nogai reported additional prisoners of war as follows: Major-General Nikitin and Baile, and Rear-Admiral Wiren. The paroled besides General Stoessel, include Major-General Rits, Nadlen and Kostinkov and Rear-Admirals Prince Oukomsky, Gregorovitch and Roslitski, and Engineer-in-chief Rindeback.

Challengers at The Capital

Bulletin Special.

Ottawa, January 13.—The challenging Yukon hockey team, who will play the locals for the Stanley Cup were out this morning for the initial workout. The gold diggers made good in the first practice.

Speakers Sworn In

Bulletin Special.

Ottawa, January 12.—Speaker Belcourt of the Commons, and ex-speaker Lawrence Power, of the Senate, were sworn in to-day by Earl Grey. The members of the privy council were present. Parliament adjourned to-day until Monday.

Five Hundred Killed

Vancouver, B. C., January 1.—Five hundred killed and 3,200 captured. That is the tale of victory that Chinese papers by the last mail tell in regard to the rebellion in Kwangsi. This time it is the government troops which won. The last mail reported that the rebels had captured the city of Loehenghsien, with much slaughter. The Imperial troops recaptured the city, and the insurgent rabble retreated to their fastnesses of Hsiachangan, which forms the apex of a triangle made by the meeting of the frontiers of the three cities Loehenghsien, Yungtsien, Liehoufu. There a determined stand was made, but the Imperial army surrounded the insurgents, killed 500 of them, and captured all but 300 out of a band of 4,000.

Next the rebels gathered in force at Szechuan, recruits to their ranks swelling the total to 6,000. The Imperial troops, 8,000 in number, attacked the place during a storm, at night swam through the broad moat, climbed the high stone wall, surprised the insurgents and captured the stronghold with the loss of but a few men. The remnants of the rebel army fled to Shenfu.

From here the insurgents made a attack on the Miaotse, aboriginal district city of Hsinchensien. They turned the tables on the government soldiers. The rebels first put 400 of the Miaotse militia to the sword and then poured over the walls of the city, which were held by two companies of well-armed soldiers. The military and civil authorities were completely taken by surprise and the Miaotse chief was compelled to abandon the city with such of his tribe as escaped massacre at the hands of the insurgents. It is declared that as soon as the rebels appeared inside the walls the regular troops disvested themselves of their uniforms and joined in killing and plundering the unfortunate aborigines. The latter led by their chief, made good their retreat, and reported the massacre to Viceroy Tsao, who hurriedly sent men from Loehenghsien, thus the rebellion in Kwangsi seesaws, without any present indication of peace being restored in the province.

Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill has ushered in a new era in the treatment and cure of disease. Thousands who had given up hope have been restored to perfect health, and every cure seems to be perfect and permanent. Here is a case of Dyspepsia:

"I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia for many years. I have been treated by local doctors, and have taken nearly all the advertised remedies with only temporary relief, but since using Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill I can eat anything the same as when a boy. My old-time vigor has returned, so that my spirits are buoyant and temper normal. I give all credit to Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill."—M. N. Dufee, 29 Colborne Street, Toronto.

STRATHCONA WON

FIRST PETERSON CUP GAME

Fast Game at the Thistle Rink Last Night. First Win in Twenty Games

Strathcona won a hard fought game in the rink last evening, the first in the series for the Peterson cup.

This the first match in the cup competitions drew a good house, the Strathcona supporters turning out loyally. There was a fine display of colors and an over supply of horns, whistles and other instruments by which the small boy expresses his jubilation or seeks to drown the victorious acclamations of the opposing benches. Both teams had plenty of encouragement, and on occasion, plenty of "guff."

Mr. Hays of Strathcona was the referee and comparatively little fault was found with him by the spectators.

It was nearly 8.30 when the teams faced up but they got speedily down to playing the game in earnest. Seven minutes of hard playing, then a brilliant rush by the Edmonton forwards and Sherman scored.

Six minutes later Strathcona, returned the compliment, the honors falling to Ritchie.

Three minutes later Strathcona repeated from a scrimmage in front of Edmonton's goal, occasioned by an off-side.

The next goal came to Edmonton in four minutes as the result of a forward rush and a good shot by Wright.

Two minutes later Strathcona scored again from a scrimmage.

The home forwards captured the puck after several minutes bombarding and skirmishing and rushed the Strathcona goal, putting the puck in the net. The referee called them for an off-side however and they faced off in front of the goal. Sherman captured the rubber and by a lucky shot evened the honors for the first half.

Only a short intermission was taken for rubbing down and they were at it again.

The first honor of this half went to the visitors by a fluke. Their forwards had carried the puck to the goal of the home team and Kent tried to pass. Matheson blocked it only to deflect it into the net.

Twelve minutes elapsed before the next score, Elliott landing one for the home team after a splendid charge.

Four minutes later the visiting forwards got past the home defence and added another to their list and five minutes later did it again.

Within the last minute of time Dobson and Deaton got in a mix-up near the Edmonton goal and while they explained matters Strathcona scored again.

The bell rang and Strathcona had won 7 to 4.

The game was the hardest of the season so far, the worst feature being tendency for long range bombarding. Rough play was fortunately rare, though the tumbles and collisions incident to a fast game were many.

In the first half Wright was sent to the fence for two minutes—the only punishment inflicted during the game.

On the whole the Edmonton defence was the weak part of the team. Tobin at cover was slow and his work devolved on Banford who was forced to play further out than usual. Matheson in goal played his usual good game and Banford never failed to lift promptly and safely.

McRae, the cover for Strathcona, was a host in himself and filled the duties of his place splendidly.

The referee was on the whole quite satisfactory; his most evident oversight being to allow Dobson and Kent to loaf off-side.

The teams meet for the second match of the series on Thursday evening of next week.

Last night's game was the first of twenty matches to be won by Strathcona, their last victory having been won in the season of 1902-03.

NEW CUP FOR THE HOCKEY TEAMS.

Mr. A. Brown, local agent of the Calgary Brewing Co., has received word that the Company will give another splendid cup for competition among the hockey teams of the north. The cup will be even more elaborate than the cup presented by the Company three years since, which was won outright by the city team in three seasons. The new cup will be under the same regulations as the former one. It will be put in the hands of the city team to defend and the competition may be made open to Alberta or to the teams in Northern Alberta, as they may see fit.

OLDS TO PLAY HERE MONDAY.

The Olds hockey team come up on Monday's train and play the city team in the Thistle rink the same evening. The Olds team got away with the Calgary aggregation some time since and is claimed to be one of the best in the West.

SCHOOL TEAMS PLAY TO-NIGHT.

Want One Province

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Premier Haultain and Hon. Mr. Bulyea, of the Territorial Government are here discussing with Sir Wilfrid Laurier the question of autonomy for the Northwest Territories. They began their conference with the First Minister on Tuesday. Mr. Bulyea, who is the Commissioner of Public Works for the Territories, said this evening: "Our proposition is before the Government, and has been for some time. We ask for the creation of the Territories into a Province, and a subsidy of 80 cents per head of the population, the same as the other provinces. We also desire to secure Dominion lands, so that we may be able to augment our revenue. Any arrangement which might now be made would not, of course, be permanent. Our present population is about 400,000. Five years from now it may be double that number, when a readjustment would be necessary, or great injustice would result. We have no school question on our hands, and do not expect any. Protestant and Catholic teachers qualify before they teach in the public or separate schools. In some instances where the ladies of religious orders desire to give instruction, they have qualified at the normal school. We desire a much larger revenue than we are now in receipt of and it should be given without delay. The country is vast in extent, and the people are passing in. To meet the necessities of the settlers, roads and bridges, and other works, need to be constructed. If the Government should decide that there must be two Provinces, that is their affair, but, as I have already said, we are only asking for one. I should be sorry to see the Northwest Mounted Police go when provincial autonomy is granted. They are a Federal force, maintained by the Dominion, but their presence would still be necessary for the enforcement of law and order, and the prevention of crime. How are the Americans doing in the Territories? Decidedly they are doing well. They make good citizens, and readily adapt themselves to the changed life. They are subject to less taxation, and concede that our laws and institutions are at least as good as their own."

A TRIP TO PEACE RIVER

Albertan:

Paul Paradis, of the Dominion Department of Public Works, has returned from the Peace river, whither he went to inspect the construction of a road which is contemplated from Edmonton to Peace River Crossing.

He went from Edmonton to Lesser Slave lake and then on to the junction of the Smoky River and Peace river.

Mr. Paradis is of the opinion that the country will in the process of time be a very good one. He believes that the report of Professor Macoun was somewhat exaggerated. The country to the south is not very good, being somewhat swampy. Further north, though it would be good for mixed farming, was also good for ranching, as there was considerable snow in winter, and on that account the cattle had to be fed in the winter time, though they were able to stay out during the winter.

Farming as a Business

We are moving out of the old conditions, said Professor C. C. James, Ontario's Deputy Minister of Agriculture, at the Maritime Winter Fair. When our settlers first came to Canada they faced the primeval forest, and during all the clearing period the old agriculture held sway. With a new generation, conditions began to change; live stock came in, large barns were built, butter and cheese began to be made, and we gradually changed all our methods. This building and the exhibits it contains are proof that we are trying to keep up with the demands of the times and to compete with other countries by following the New Agriculture.

The New Agriculture must be conducted upon business principles. In old times it did not seem so necessary to pursue these business methods; in fact, with the surroundings then existent, there was no chance to do so. In our towns and cities the merchant and the manufacturer has also had to change his methods of business. The farmer is just as much a manufacturer as the man in town who makes boots, cloths and hardware. The manufacturer in town finds it necessary to make the kind of goods that the consumer demands. It is also one of the conditions to-day that the farmer should produce what his customers want. We must consider what our district is best capable of producing, and work along that line. Grow the crops and keep the live stock that thrive best where we live.

The manufacturer must produce economically. Our best saw mills, for instance, are now run with practically no waste material; even the dust is used. One of the best examples of economical manufacturing is seen in the great stock yards of Chicago, where absolutely every part of an animal is turned into a marketable product. So the farmer must endeavor to convert to a profitable use all his products. He should see to it that there is no waste land under weeds, under fences, or in careless cultivation. The farmer has, perhaps, in his operations greater problems to meet than any other manufacturer, if he would avoid unnecessary waste.

The New Agriculture must be conducted upon scientific principles. There should not to-day be any objection to book farming, for the intelligent man can from agricultural papers and books get the valuable experience of other men who have done the work he is trying to do. Our people are wisely beginning to lay aside their prejudice against books and to try to get the best information from every available source. Scientific men have been and are studying and finding out truths about plant growth, the constituents of our soils, the breeding and feeding of animals, the growing of fruit, etc., and it will pay us to learn what these men have found out.

The farm work of the future will be a great deal more enjoyable. In Ontario the farmers are very seldom referred to as "old hayseeds." The intelligent man who watches closely all the results of his work is interested and takes a pleasure in it. The world has lately found out that the farmer can be benefitted by an education applicable to his business.

Good wagon roads from Edmonton and from Ft. Saskatchewan also south to Whitford and Battleford. The property is about twenty miles north of the route of the Canadian Pacific Railway, near the route of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and within eight miles of the Saskatchewan river which is navigable.

CHARACTER OF COUNTRY.

Comparatively flat prairie relieved with low rolling hills, which are thickly wooded with small jack pine and fir. The pine runs from five to eight inches in diameter, and is suitable for fencing, building and fuel.

WATER SUPPLY.

There is a stream running through the property, which in the driest seasons yields an ample supply for all purposes. In addition there are two large lakes of fresh water on the property at least 300 acres.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.

This consists of six claims in townships 58 and 59, ranges 14 and 15, west of Fourth Meridian. The claims are named Wee Aman, Irondale, Limonite, Farm, Revelstoke, Rita and Eva, and all being fully licensed by the Dominion Government to Messrs. McAdam & Johnson, and surveyed by Messrs. Saunders & Driscoll, P.L.S., in June, 1904.

CHARACTER OF MINERAL DEPOSIT.

Oxide of iron, yielding on analysis, 45.2 per cent of metallic iron on the certificate of Mr. A. L. McKillop, of Nelson, dated October 26, 1904.

OCCURRENCE OF DEPOSIT.

A stream runs through the property from north to south, and in the flat portions widens out into a large bog in which the ore is deposited for a distance of two miles in length and from 200 to 600 feet in width; the depth of the deposit is from six to fourteen feet. On the Wee Aman claim it is from 500 to 600 feet in width, and is a genuine bog ore. Towards the north end of the property the ground rises and the deposit is covered by several feet of gravel, put at points where the drift is cut evidences of the continuance of the deposit underneath are found.

WORK DONE.

A number of pits have been sunk, some twenty feet deep, through the deposit, and in each its continuity over the area named has been demonstrated. In addition a trench half a mile long has been cut to drain the upper or north end of the property. On the Wee Aman claim a substantial cabin and barn have been built.

QUANTITY.

The extent of the development work will not admit of a close estimate of tonnage, but I can safely say from the areas actually measured that a million tons would be well within the mark, and it is not improbable that this estimate will be greatly increased as work proceeds.

UTILITY OF DEPOSIT.

First, an excellent paint oxide for which a market could readily be found as the country opens up and railway facilities are provided.

Second, in combination with other ores for smelting and iron and steel manufacture, similar to that so successfully smelted at the Radnor Forges, Quebec, for many years.

COST OF DEVELOPMENT.

$10,000 judiciously expended in sinking and boring would thoroughly prove the property. I believe that you would have in it a most valuable asset and one easily and quickly realizable, as it is more than likely from the character and occurrence of the deposit that the springs come from a stratified ore body below which should be disclosed by boring.

Having had thirty years' experience in locating and working various iron deposits, I have no hesitation in saying that this is a valuable property and one which will justify the expenditure recommended.

FUEL.

On the banks of the Saskatchewan river eight miles south there is an outcropping of good lignitic coal running from 45 to 50 per cent in fixed carbon. This is easily accessible and available for fuel purposes.
